IMAX - Hurricane on the Bayou

A powerfully moving large format film unlike any other, Hurricane on the Bayou carries audiences behind today's news headlines on a journey deep into the soul-stirring heart of Louisiana - before, during and after the unprecedented devastation of Hurricane Katrina. Narrated by Meryl Streep and driven by a rousing jazz, blues, and gospel-fueled soundtrack featuring music legends Fats Domino, Aaron Neville, Dr. John and many more, Hurricane on the Bayou is both a haunting document of a storm's human effects and a compelling call to restore Louisiana's wetlands, rebuild New Orleans, and honor the place where America's most vibrant home-grown culture was born.

Rick Steves' Europe

Budapest: The Best of Hungary - Budapest, once Vienna's partner in ruling the Austro-Hungarian Empire, feels like the capital of Eastern Europe. It's actually two cities -- busy Pest and noble Buda -- straddling the Danube and laced together by mighty bridges. Capitalism has taken hold with gusto as shopping boulevards thrive and stone Lenins and cast-iron Stalins litter a theme park at the edge of town. Today Gypsy orchestras feature smoking violins, venerable mineral baths are the rage, and 19th century coffeehouses enjoy a renaissance. For a taste of the countryside-castles, cathedrals, and riverside villages -- we cruise the Danube Bend.

New York Dolls - The band that created "punk" before the term was even created meets up with Matt Pinfield at the legendary rock club CBGB in New York City. Lead singer David Johansen and guitarist Sylvain Sylvain talk of the early days playing the clubs in lower Manhattan to earn a loyal cult following, but being avoided by the record companies due to the vulgar lyrics and cross-dressing, which would seem quite the norm in today's music world. A roller-coaster career marred by deaths, drugs and record company/management changes led to a triumphant reunion in 2004.
