Dan Rather Reports

What Happened Next: The Dalits of India - A follow-up to our investigation into the so-called "untouchables" and the courageous story of one woman who made it out, to America. Also, an update on honor killings in the United Kingdom. Is the phenomenon spreading to the U.S.?

9:00 PM ET / 6:00 PM PT

HDNet World Report

The Stem Cell Revolution, Part 1; Holy Shrines, Under Attack - In the first of a three part series, we meet patients whose lives have been transformed, or saved, by cutting edge stem cell treatments. A woman who couldn't walk now plays tennis, a man has his damaged heart healed, and one doctor is even printing new organs! Next, we're in Pakistan, where a moderate, mystical and peaceful brand of Islam called Sufism is under attack by the Taliban.

Premiere

10:00 PM ET / 7:00 PM PT

Rick Steves' Europe

Denmark Beyond Copenhagen - Using Copenhagen as a springboard, we'll visit the very best of Denmark. Visit Aarhus' ancient bog man, Roskilde's Viking ship museum, and an island with half-timbered cottages, ships in bottles, and cobbled alleyways reminiscent of the world of Hans Christian Andersen.

10:30 PM ET / 7:30 PM PT

Rick Steves' Europe

Budapest: The Best of Hungary - Budapest, once Vienna's partner in ruling the Austro-Hungarian Empire, feels like the capital of Eastern Europe. It's actually two cities -- busy Pest and noble Buda -- straddling the Danube and laced together by mighty bridges. Capitalism has taken hold with gusto as shopping boulevards thrive and stone Lenins and cast-iron Stalins litter a theme park at the edge of town. Today Gypsy orchestras feature smoking violins, venerable mineral baths are the rage, and 19th century coffeehouses enjoy a renaissance. For a taste of the countryside-castles, cathedrals, and riverside villages -- we cruise the Danube Bend.

Rick Steves' Europe

Budapest: The Best of Hungary - Budapest, once Vienna's partner in ruling the Austro-Hungarian Empire, feels like the capital of Eastern Europe. It's actually two cities -- busy Pest and noble Buda -- straddling the Danube and laced together by mighty bridges. Capitalism has taken hold with gusto as shopping boulevards thrive and stone Lenins and cast-iron Stalins litter a theme park at the edge of town. Today Gypsy orchestras feature smoking violins, venerable mineral baths are the rage, and 19th century coffeeshouses enjoy a renaissance. For a taste of the countryside-castles, cathedrals, and riverside villages -- we cruise the Danube Bend.
