3:00 PM ET / 12:00 PM PT

Rock Legends

Soft Rock - During the 1960s, rock n roll splintered into a rainbow of genres - musicians were experimenting. Soft rock began as a blend of the progressive rock quest for musicianship and the songwriter's love of pop. It originated in the late 1960s in Southern California and the United Kingdom. The style relied on simple, melodic songs with big, lush productions. This new genre established bands such as Supertramp, ELO & Barclay James Harvest.

3:30 PM ET / 12:30 PM PT

Rock Legends

Birth of Metal - Metal combined overdriven guitars with heavy drums, bass lines working with and against guitar lines, and vocals from voices at the limit of their power. In metal, everything is at a "10." During the 60s flower power movement, peace and love in music no longer reflected the lives of a generation. At the same time, de-industrialization was beginning. If you were angry, you didn't want to change the world. You just wanted to scream. This episode features artists such as Deep Purple, Black Sabbath and Nazareth.

4:00 PM ET / 1:00 PM PT

Rock Legends

Women Who Rock - Women have sung on jazz, pop and soul tracks since the 1930s, but when it came to rock, however, there were few women in the 1950s who wrote and performed their own songs. In the 60s, artists such as Grace Slick and Janis Joplin were fronting A-list bands. All-female garage bands, such as The Runaways and Fanny, achieved limited success. As rock developed in the late 60s and 70s alongside the women's liberation movement, women refused to be just the pretty singer or the manufactured glam groups. This episode features bands such as Heart, Suzie Quatro and The Bangles.
